MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Case 32254 - Fred Z. Lennings

1. Fred Lennings called "Collect" from San Francisco on July 21 1967 to say that he was out of money and that he owed his room rent at the YMCA and didn't have any money to pay for it. [ ] told him that he had been counselled before that he was to maintain contact with his friend in Seattle or Portland and that he had better call him instead of here. Fred said he felt he was "thrown out on the street" to which [ ] replied reminding him that he had received two separate payments of $50.00 each during the last two weeks and that this was "certainly not being thrown out on the street". He said that he likes the San Francisco area very much but that he hasn't yet found any employment. [ ] told him to keep trying until he does.

2. Fred wanted to have a contact in San Francisco as he did with "the good friends in Seattle and Portland". [ ] told him that there are no contacts in San Francisco and that he remain in touch with his former friends. Fred said "I sometimes feel I'd be better off dead". [ ] agreed with him and on this tone he hung up the telephone.
